

With the need to move towards a more individualized technology program, we need continued support to upgrade wireless hardware and software along with bandwidth. As a BYOD school, we need to be able to provide high speed technology access to our students and staff.